

Please do not tamper with the Indiana "do not call list". Since going into effect the rate of marketing calls has fallen to almost zero. A much less restrictive list, allowing numerous exceptions would be a huge step backwards. As someone who works evenings and sleeps during the day this is an important issue to me.

thanks,
Tony Gundich